Poem

Think before you Speak
Today before you think of saying an unkind word think of someone who can't speak.
Before you complain the distance you'd drive
think of someone, the distance, did walk.....
with their feet

Before whining the taste of your food
think of someone who has nothing to eat.
Before grumbling about your crammed home think of people living in the streets

Today before you complain about life think of someone who left too soon to heaven.
Before you complain about your kids
think of someone who desires children,
but is barren

Before condemning the other person remember none of us is without wrong.....
When depressing thoughts crush you down
you'd scowl and want to cry,
think of the disfigured face who couldn't smile

Think before you speak.....
Filled yourself with kind thoughts and thankfulness.

Flourish this positive attitude.....
complaints will become gratitude.
