A STORY OF LOVE

JAMIE AND VIOLET

2 October 2005

Congratulations to Jamie and Violet!

Mike Woon:

Yes, to Jamie & Violet, you both have set a very good example, as a leader, as a very enterprising young entrepreneur and a social contribution. What are these:

1) As a leader toward all the activities, especially our Cairnhill, throughout these years, both of you put in alot of effort to bring the club back on par or even better than it use to be. Make the club known to the rest of the clubs through your commitment and involvement. Violet, especially the speech marathon. That was a break through and alot of people and member remember you for that wonderful speeches.

"Spoon feeding in the long run teaches us nothing but the shape of the spoon"

-- E.M. Foster

Motivation / Inspiration

"What a game life is! You win, you lose, you smile, and you gain."

2) Enterprising, will you have are always so creative and full of excitement. For our club, you both have even came out with the slogan that catches a lot of people's eye when they surf the net. In terms of business, you both have again scored "A" at the right time and the right place. Because not many people think of match making a fun business but you both did it.

3) Social contribution, you both have started your business at the right time when our society and marriages and the birth rates are declining. You both step up to save Singapore. Especially, lots of people are unable to find the right spouse in Singapore, but you both did it. To proved to them that this is a right company and has the right staff and professionalism, you both had the first hand testimony to proof that the company caters for all work of life, that is you and Jamie.

So, what else can I say but lots of love and blessing. May the great Lord keep showering love and blessings to you both and donot forget the last social responsibility, make lots of babies.

Sharon Ho:

True love is not loving a perfect person but loving an imperfect person perfectly. It is indeed a blessing to be able to find your true love and spend the rest of your life together; someone who will walk with you during this lifetime and be your soul mate and your friend.

The universe is so vast – yet you are able to find each other. How happy I am for you! Take heart, be grateful and cherish this precious union, and may love and happiness follow you always.

Let time be the testimony of your everlasting love for each other. Once again, congratulations to both of you!

Vincent Chua:

Jamie and Violet exemplify the new generation of Singaporean who no long Kiasu, are creative and highly motivated. Hope they will always remember their touching vows of love during good times and bad times. Don't forget the government's baby bonus program as well.

I have known the loving couple, Violet and Jamie since that evening in July 2003 when I first stepped into Cairnhill Toastmaster Club.

Violet is very obliging, helpful and caring young lady and this led me to have a liking for her at first sight. (Sorry Jamie, for giving me a space in her heart to be in love with her at first sight!).

I have not given her any chance to ponder and straight away I booked her as my mentor that evening. She gave me a firm and positive reply and this gave me inspiration, motivation and cultivation to complete my 10 projects within 8 months. Thank you Violet, you are a wonderful mentor to me and also to majority of us in Cairnhill Toastmaster Club.

Jamie is very helpful, supportive and confident young man. When I could not find any evaluator, Toastmaster of the Evening or any appointment holder for the chapter meeting, he is always there for me. A big salute to you Jamie. You are a wonderful man wearing many hats at the same time. Every member will agree with me on this statement.

I have been asked by some Toastmaster members from other Clubs, about both Violet and Jamie on what position of their relationship as they have seen both of them together in the Toastmaster events and functions. Of course, my reply was simple, clear and easy to understand. That is: "THEY ARE LOVING COUPLE WITH BIG HEARTS".

Very often, they have given and share their time together to all members in Cairnhill Toastmaster Club and other Toastmaster Clubs as well. They also have charity hearts to the Poor in the Third World Countries by building houses, building families and building hopes. At the same time, both of them have devoted their happiness together with the needy people through the non-profit organization - Habitat for Humanity Singapore.

Look at both of them, they have many similarities:

- Skin - both of them have fair, crystal and smooth skin.
- Smile - both of them smile willingly at any time showing their set of white teeth.
- Skill - both of them are good in many skills- you name them, they have them. For example- public speaking skill (Cairnhill Toastmaster Club), entrepreneurship skill (Lunch Actually), education skill (Manchester), Leadership skill (President and Vice President in Education), relationship skill (Husband and Wife), etc, etc, etc.

I wish both of them an everlasting love as a couple, happy,
